

Future In Our Hands International

Future in Our Hands (FIOH) is an International humanitarian and environmental action organization. The FIOH Movement was inspired by the book, Future In Our Hands, written by Norwegian Engineer, Erik Dammann in 1974.

FIOH is based on the following principals:

- ❖ Equal rights for everyone
- ❖ Safeguarding the environment for current and future generations
- ❖ Good quality of life for all
- ❖ Placing an emphasis on compassion and sharing among the world community

This network is continually growing and presently consists of branches in the following countries:

Cameroon	India
Ghana	Pakistan
Kenya	Philippines
Sierra Leone
South Africa
Tanzania

Future In Our Hands- USA Who are we?

A non-governmental organization created in response to the dire needs of the poor in Kenya:

Founding members of FIOH-USA, Buffalonians, Michele Sprada and Sister Linda Glaeser, SSJ, have traveled to Kenya for several summers and worked closely with FIOH-Kenya. Through their first hand experience of seeing extreme poverty in Kenya and the good work that FIOH-Kenya had started, they realized that much more needed to be done. They responded by founding FIOH-USA in order to give generous individuals an opportunity to participate in the fight against poverty in Kenya and other locations around the world.

The funds raised are used for:

- ❖ Wells- to provide drinkable water
- ❖ Education - to help children step out of poverty
- ❖ Medical equipment and supplies
- ❖ HIV/AIDS Education and treatment
- ❖ Micro-Loans to Women's Groups for income generating activities

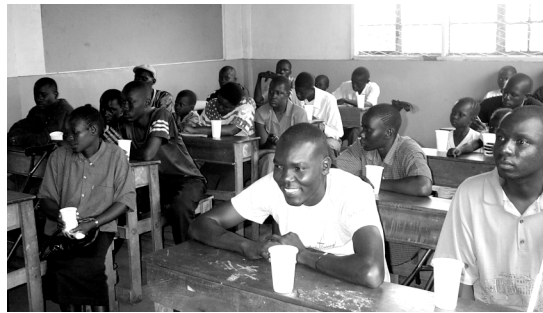

Members of FIOH-USA are happy to give informational presentations about the conditions they encountered in Africa and how you can help in the work of FIOH-USA. Your school, church, and special interest groups can make a difference. For contact information refer to the back page.

Be a Part of the Solution Through FIOH-USA

Your donation can help to fund a well

Your donation of $350 can sponsor a high school or college student for one year.

Your donation can fund medical and HIV/aids education and treatment.

FIOH-USA Keeps you directly connected

You will receive a FIOH-USA newsletter with:

- ❖ Progress reports on your contributions
- ❖ Communications directly from Kenya
- ❖ Creative ideas for fund raising
- ❖ Ongoing successes of FIOH-USA

The Board of FIOH-USA communicates closely with other small FIOH branches throughout the world. Together, they determine where the money you contribute can make the most difference.

By contributing to FIOH-USA you are directly connected with individuals who need your help. You see first hand the difference your contribution makes in the lives of impoverished people.
